2017 Volunteer of the Year

Meet Gwenn Welsch, the Central California Hemophilia Foundations 2017 Volunteer of the Year recipient. Gwenn is our Fundraising chairperson and coordinator extraordinaire. Gwenn has been a vital part of the CCHF team for many years. She dedicates many hours organizing our events, gathering donations, gift prizes and coordinating volunteers. Her successful leadership, attention to details and love for the bleeding disorder community make CCHF fundraising and events a continued success each year.

Thank you Gwenn for your love, compassion and dedication to the bleeding disorder community. We are truly grateful for all you do.

It is our mission to improve the quality of life for persons with inherited bleeding disorders through Education, Advocacy and Support. For CCHF to meet our mission and provide services in our community, we rely on the generosity of individuals and businesses for support. Without the assistance of community-minded individuals just like you, we wouldn't be able to serve those in our community each year. We ask for your support and remember that every donation makes a difference.

You may donate on our website at www.cchfsac.org or mail your donation to us at 163689, Sacramento, CA 95816.

Thank you again for supporting CCHF and the bleeding disorder community.
We are happy to introduce to you Lynne Kinst, our new Executive Director. Some of you have already met Lynne, as she has been consulting part-time as our Chapter Services Director since September 2016.

Lynne has worked at the Board of Equalization as a tax services specialist since February 2011, working for Board Members George Runner and Diane Harkey, the Taxpayer’s Rights Advocate and External Affairs. As a tax services specialist Lynne works on improving the taxpayer experience, assists taxpayers with their concerns, coordinates educational events for taxpayers and works on legislative and tax policy.

Previously, Lynne spent eight years as director of administration with a non-profit organization now known as Capitol Commission, where she supported ministry leadership in establishing ministries, partner development, fundraising, event coordination and human resources.

Prior to working at the non-profit she had four years of political experience working for state elected officials in a variety of capacities.

Born and raised in Sacramento, Lynne attended the University of California, Davis earning a bachelor’s degree in political science, with minors in human development and religious studies. Lynne also has a master of arts in biblical counseling from The Master’s University and is a certified counselor with the Association of Certified Biblical Counselors.

Her father, Jim Carey, was an active member of the Central California Hemophilia Foundation, serving decades as the treasurer until his death in 1994. CCHF’s Jim Carey Scholarship is named in his honor. She and her husband David live in Rocklin, CA with their family.

Message from Lynne

I am thrilled to begin this new journey as your first Executive Director. The Central California Hemophilia Foundation has a wonderful history, which my own family was involved with and benefited from over its many years. My dad, Jim Carey, was recruited by our founder Will Curtis to serve as Treasurer in those early years and since then the Foundation has grown to serve more families with many new and exciting events and educational opportunities. My goal is to continue to grow the Foundation by raising our profile and awareness about bleeding disorders here in our region, while continuing to cultivate the wonderful family feel this community has always maintained. We have new events and new volunteer opportunities on the horizon. Watch for more information in your mailbox, to your email and also on our Facebook page for ways you can be involved. And, please don’t hesitate to contact me if we can serve you in anyway.

The 2017 CCHF Family Fit and Fun Day is scheduled for Saturday, September 9, 2017.

Watch your mail for more information and how to register.

Make sure we have your current information so you can stay informed of all upcoming events. Complete the contact / donation forms that were mailed to you or contact us at cchfsac1@yahoo.com
